- Henry Ford -

We believe that each student has tremendous potential to bring about positive influence in society. We at MBS, hope to provide a platform that would unleash the best talent in the student community. Our endeavor is to provide a conducive atmosphere for our students to prove their talents and give them a competitive environment to grow, learn, lead and succeed. Individual attention to the students is our prime focus. In our view, education does not only mean literacy not is it merely reflected by the collection of degrees by a person.

Today we are on the threshold of a new era of growth and progress and material developments are overtaking age old values which have so far been an inseparable part of our life in general and the education system in particular. It is essential that, in the age of transformation, there should be a balanced blending of educational advancement with National and ethical values.

Our political, economic and social scenario constantly experiences twists and turns. The educational roller coaster keeps us all alert and vigilant as educators and parents. Our school provides a platform that inspires a new league of thinkers to bloom and blossom. In today's hyper competitive world, no opportunity to build advantages should be missed. We must think of ourselves as entities that must be dynamic and competitive and thus we teach our students to constantly evolve and maximize their potential.

Our constant aim is to raise awareness, broaden horizons, inspire debate and inculcate values that are sterling in quality.
